RE: Law Enforcement Officer of the Year Awards

Today, Thursday, May 21, 2015, the community of Bridgeport, and specifically, the Bridgeport Christian Fellowship, recognized, honored and awarded two local law enforcement officers with the award of "Law Enforcement Officer of the Year."

The recipients of this prestigious award went to Deputy Wes Hoskin, of the Mono County Sheriff's Office, and Officer Merrill Sept, of the California Highway Patrol.

"It is a pleasure to serve a community that appreciates the hard work and partnership with the Mono County Sheriff's Office," stated Undersheriff Michael Moriarty during today's ceremony. "I would like to thank the Bridgeport Christian Fellowship for honoring the very best of law enforcement within Mono County," said CHP Lieutenant Jeff Holt.

Both the Mono County Sheriff's Office and the California Highway Patrol truly appreciate the Bridgeport Christian Fellowship, and all those that participated in today's ceremony, for recognizing our local law enforcement officers for their dedication to protecting and serving our residents and visitors of Mono County.

Please join us in congratulating Deputy Hoskin and Officer Sept as our Law Enforcement Officers of the Year; an award truly deserved! We thank you for your continued dedication and service!
