Californians Ages 50+ May Qualify for More Medi-Cal Benefits

There are changes coming to Medi-Cal programs for older and disabled people, which will make it possible for more people to get Medi-Cal coverage.

Beginning May 1, 2022 all California residents who are 50 years of age or older who meet all Medi-Cal eligibility criteria will be able to get full scope Medi-Cal and immigration status does not matter.

Medi-Cal has free or low-cost health care for people who live in California. Full scope Medi-Cal covers these services and more:

- Alcohol and drug use treatment
- Dental care
- Emergency care
- Family planning
- Foot care
- Hearing aids
- Medical care
- Medicine your doctor orders
- Medical supplies
- Mental health care
- Personal attendant care and other services that help people stay out of nursing homes
- Referrals to specialists, if needed
- Tests your doctor orders
- Vision care (eyeglasses)
- Transportation to doctor and dental visits and to get your medicine at the pharmacy

Californians de 50 años de edad o mayores pueden calificar para más beneficios de Medi-Cal.

Comuníquese hoy con la oficina local de su condado.

To learn more about Medi-Cal:

Upon successful completion of the program, the student will be able to:

- Utilize software in the completion of Health Information Management (HIM) processes for billing, data collection, and data reporting.
- Evaluate the accuracy of diagnostic and procedural billing.
- Apply policies and procedures to the use of data required in healthcare reimbursement.
- Analyze current regulations and established guidelines in billing systems.

All classes needed for this certificate are available through CC Online, a virtual campus at Cerro Coso Community College, allowing for flexibility and convenience in the student's schedule.

Term Dates: June 6 to July 29, 2022 – 8 weeks

Program Costs for California Residents:

- 17 units at $46 per unit = $782 in tuition and fees
- Plus approximately $1,020* for books and supplies
- Total cost = $1,802 for 2 semesters *Estimate only. Actual costs will vary.
